

Welcome!

My name is Katarina Tomas and I am a native speaker with a university degree in Croatian Language and Literature. I moved to Canada in 2007 and currently live in Burnaby with my husband and two daughters. I have extensive experience in teaching Croatian as a second language, and I am here to inspire you to embark on a fulfilling journey of learning Croatian.

Teaching is not just a profession for me; it is my passion. I truly enjoy providing opportunities for my students to discover the beauty of the Croatian language and culture. My lessons are infused with my love for Croatia, from its rich literary heritage to its vibrant traditions. I cherish my Croatian roots and take immense pride in being part of such a great nation.

I have seamlessly blended my Croatian heritage with my Canadian life. This multicultural experience enriches my teaching approach, allowing me to connect with students from diverse backgrounds and create a dynamic learning environment.

I am committed to inspiring you to love learning Croatian as much as I love teaching it. My goal is to create a nurturing and stimulating environment where you feel motivated and confident in your language learning journey. I believe that understanding and appreciating a language goes hand-in-hand with exploring the culture it represents, and I strive to bring this approach to every lesson.

I invite you to join me in celebrating Croatian heritage through language learning. Together, we can instill a lifelong appreciation and understanding of Croatia and its values. Let's embark on this exciting journey together and open the doors to new opportunities and cultural experiences.

Feel free to reach out to me. I look forward to being a part of your educational journey and helping you thrive in your Croatian language studies.

Let's make learning Croatian an enjoyable and enriching experience!
